AIR FORCE MATERIAL COMMAND FEDERAL ACQUISITION REGULATION SUPPLEMENT (AFMC FARS)

AFMC FARS 5352.215-9008 ENABLING CLAUSE BETWEEN PRIME CONTRACTORS AND SERVICE CONTRACTORS (JUL 1997) (Applicable to each subcontract over $1 million or 10 percent of prime contract value, whichever is less.)

(a) The Air Force has entered into contracts with Lockheed Martin for services to provide F22 Sustainment services which will require Seller support in major support areas, including but not limited to, technical, evaluation and acquisition management support.

(b) Service tasks involve the application of a broad range of education, skills, knowledge, and experience in many disciplines in support of weapon system acquisition tasks.

(c) In the performance of this subcontract, the SELLER agrees to cooperate with Lockheed Martin and the US Government as follows(such listing is by way of example, but not limitation): responding to invitations from authorized personnel to attend meetings; providing access to technical information and research, development and planning data, test data and results, schedule and milestone data, financial data including the subcontractor's cost/schedule management system/records and accounting system, all in original form or reproduced; discussing technical matters related to the program; providing access to subcontractor facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; and allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate support subcontractor technical personnel).

(d) The Seller further agrees to include in each subcontract over $1 million or 10 percent of prime contract value, whichever is less, a clause requiring compliance by a subcontractor and succeeding levels of subcontractors with the response and access provisions of paragraph (c) above, subject to coordination with the Seller. This agreement does not relieve the Seller of responsibility to manage subcontracts effectively and efficiently, nor is it intended to establish privity of contracts between the Government or the service Contractor(s) and such subcontractors.

(e) Service Subcontractor personnel are not authorized to direct a Contractor in any manner. (f) Service subcontracts contain an organizational conflict of interest clause that requires the service subcontractors to protect the data and prohibits the service subcontractors from using the data for any purpose other than that for which the data was presented.

(g) Neither the Seller nor their subcontractors shall be required in the satisfaction of the requirements of this clause to perform any effort or supply any documentation not otherwise required by their contract or subcontract.
