(1) In addition to LOCKHEED MARTIN's ownership of all the Intellectual Property Rights in the Foreground Information under CORP DOCS 1, 1 SER, 1 T&M, or 1 INT, SELLER agrees that Canada has ownership rights in the tangible embodiment of any prototype, model, custom or customized system or equipment that is a deliverable under this Contract. (4) SELLER shall maintain the confidentiality of the information or data supplied by Canada and the personal information using the same safeguards it uses to protect its own information of like kind, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care. If the information or data is destroyed, SELLER shall certify its destruction to LOCKHEED MARTIN and Canada in writing.

(1) As Canada has contributed to the cost of developing the Foreground Information, SELLER also grants to Canada a license to exercise all Intellectual Property Rights in the Foreground Information for Canada's activities. Subject to any exception described in this Contract, this license allows Canada to do anything it wants with the Foreground Information, other than exploit it commercially and transfer or assign ownership of it. SELLER also grants to Canada a license to use or have used on its behalf in confidence the Background Information owned or within control of the SELLER or in which SELLER has unrestricted sub-license rights but only to the extent that it is reasonably necessary for Canada to exercise fully all its rights in the deliverables and in the Foreground Information provided that such use of Background Information is solely in connection with CP-140 Aircraft owned and operated by Canada.

(2) SELLER agrees that these licenses to Canada are non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, fully-paid and royalty-free. Neither license shall be restricted in any way by SELLER by providing, for example, any form of notice to the contrary, including the wording on any shrink-wrap or click-wrap license or any other kind of packaging, attached to any deliverable in which the SELLER owns, controls or has unrestricted sub-licensing rights in the Intellectual Property Rights.

(3) For greater certainty, Canada's licenses include, but are not limited to: confidence, to third parties bidding on or negotiating contracts with Canada in connection with CP-140's owned and operated by Canada and to sublicense or otherwise authorize the use of that information by any contractor engaged by Canada solely for the purpose of carrying out such contracts. Canada, or a person designated by Canada, will own the Intellectual Property Rights associated with the modification, improvement, or development of the Foreground Information but not the underlying Foreground and Background Information of SELLER;

(d) without restricting the scope of any license or other right in the Background Information that Canada may otherwise hold, the right, in relation to any custom- designed or custom-manufactured part of the Work made by SELLER, to exercise such of the Intellectual Property Rights in SELLER's Background Information, in confidence, as may be required for the following purposes:

(i) for the use, operation, maintenance, repair or overhaul of the custom- designed or custom-manufactured parts of the Work; and/or

(ii) in the manufacturing of spare parts for maintenance, repair or overhaul of any custom-designed or custom- manufactured part of the Work by Canada, if those parts are not available on reasonable commercial terms from SELLER to enable timely maintenance, repair or overhaul.

12.4 Seller's Right to Grant Licenses

SELLER represents and warrants that it has the right to grant to Canada the licenses and any other rights to use the Foreground and Background Information owned or within the control of SELLER or in which SELLER has unrestricted sub-licensing rights as required by this Clause 12. If the Intellectual Property Rights in any Foreground or Background Information are or will be owned by a lower tier subcontractor of SELLER or any other third party, Seller shall use reasonable efforts to obtain a license from that lower tier subcontractor or third party that permits compliance with section 12.3 or arrange, for SELLER or third party to grant a license directly to Canada.

12.5 Waiver of Moral Rights

If requested by LOCKHEED MARTIN or Canada, during and after this Contract, SELLER must provide a written permanent waiver of moral rights, as defined in the Copyright Act, R.S., 1985, c. In its request for a license to that department or agency, SELLER must explain why the license is required and how SELLER intends to use the information. If the department or agency agrees to grant a license, conditions will be negotiated between SELLER and that department or agency and may include the payment of compensation to Canada.
